GEORGE "SPARKY" ANDERSON FEBRUARY 22, 1934 - NOVEMBER 4, 2010

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a great loss with the passing of Hall of Fame manager Sparky Anderson on November 4, 2010. Anderson managed at the major league level for 26 seasons, including 17 with the Tigers from 1979-95. He recorded 1,331 victories as the Tigers manager, the most in franchise history, and led the club to a World Series title during the 1984 season.
Anderson played professionally for 11 seasons as an infielder in the Brooklyn Dodgers, Los Angeles Dodgers, Philadelphia Phillies, Cleveland Indians, Milwaukee Braves and Washington Senators organizations. He played at the major league level for one season, seeing action in 152 games with the Phillies during the 1959 season. He retired as a player following the 1963 season and began his managerial career at the helm of the Triple A Toronto Maple Leafs in the International League. He managed pennant-winning clubs at Single A and Double A each of the next four seasons before being hired as the third base coach for the San Diego Padres during their inaugural 1969 season.
Following his one season as a coach at the major league level, the Cincinnati Reds tabbed Anderson as their manager on October 8, 1969. At 36 years old when the 1970 season began, he was the youngest manager in the major leagues at the time and a relative unknown. He wasted little time making a name for himself, guiding the Reds to 102 victories and a trip to the World Series. He led the Big Red Machine to the World Series four times during his nine seasons at the helm, winning back-to-back World Series titles in 1975 and 1976.
Anderson managed the Reds through the 1978 season and began the final chapter of his managerial career as the manager of the Detroit Tigers during the 1979 season. Unlike the star-laden clubs he guided in Cincinnati, his Detroit club was full of young players who had yet to make a name for themselves at the major league level. His 1979 roster included Kirk Gibson, Jack Morris, Lance Parrish, Dan Petry, Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker.
The core group of players learned the game under his guidance and in 1984 put together one of the greatest seasons in franchise history. The 1984 club posted a $35-5$ record in the first 40 games and led the American League East from start to finish. The Tigers swept the Kansas City Royals in the American League Championship Series and then defeated the San Diego Padres in five games to claim Detroit's first World Series title since 1968.

A TRIBUTE TO SPARKY

nyuyd 01 ginalial

The Tigers went on to make the playoffs again in 1987 with Anderson at the helm and he remains the franchise's all-time leader in games managed $(2,579)$ and wins $(1,331)$. He was twice named American League Manager of the Year $(1984,1987)$ and was also the first manager in major league history to win 100-or-more games in a season in both leagues and the first manager to win a World Series title in both leagues. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000.
In addition to his 17 seasons as the Tigers manager, he left a lasting impact on the community through CATCH, a children's charity he founded in 1987. CATCH raises funds to provide a current and future source of revenue to help improve the quality of life for sick, injured and at-risk pediatric patients who receive care from Children's Hospital of Michigan and Henry Ford Hospital.
On January 22, 2011, the Tigers announced that the club will retire Anderson's number 11 during a ceremony during the 2011 season. His number will be the sixth retired by the Tigers, joining Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, AI Kaline and Hal Newhouser in receiving the honor.
Additionally, the Tigers will wear a patch bearing his name and number throughout the spring and regular seasons and a commemorative flag will be raised at Comerica Park on Opening Day.
Anderson is survived by his wife, Carol, daughter, Shirley Engelbrecht and sons, Lee and Albert.

HISTORY OF TIGERS RBI CHAMPIONS

Cabrera Becomes First Tigers RBI Champion Since 1992

Miguel Cabrera enjoyed a tremendous season at the plate in 2010, finishing the season with a . 328 batting average, 45 doubles, 38 home runs and 126 RBI. He led the American League with the 126 RBI to become the first Tigers player to do so since Cecil Fielder led the league with 124 RBI during the 1992 season. In addition to leading the league in RBI, he also led the league with a . 420 on-base percentage and 32 intentional walks, while he finished second with a .328 batting average, .622 slugging percentage, 341 total bases, 84 extra-base hits and an RBI once every 4.3 at-bats. He joined Hank Greenberg as the only player in Tigers history to finish with at least 45 doubles, 35 home runs and 120 RBI during a single season. Greenberg accomplished the feat in 1935, 1937 and 1940.
The 126 RBI marked the seventh consecutive season Cabrera has reached triple digits in RBI, joining Alex Rodriguez (13 straight), Albert Pujols (10 straight) and Mark Teixeira (seven straight) as the only major league players with active streaks of seven-or-more seasons.
Cabrera is the eighth player in franchise history to lead the American League in RBI, joining a group that includes multiple Hall of Famers and legendary sluggers from across more than a century of Tigers baseball.
Cobb Records Four RBI Titles in Five Seasons from 1907-11
Hall of Famer and legendary Tigers outfielder Ty Cobb is best known for his batting titles and baserunning, but his potent bat delivered four RBI titles in five seasons from 1907-11. While he is the Tigers all-time leader in batting average, hits and stolen bases, he also is the all-time leader with 1,828 RBI. He recorded seven seasons with 100-or-more RBI during his Tigers career.
He won three consecutive RBI titles from 1907-09, topping the league with 116 RBI in 1907, 108 RBI in 1908 and 107 RBI in 1909. He finished second in the league in 1910 with 91 RBI, trailing teammate Sam Crawford who paced the American League with 120 RBI. He surged back to the top of the leaders in 1911 with a career-high 144 RBI.
Cobb topped 100 RBI three more times during his career, recording 102 RBI in 1917, 101 RBI in 1921 and 102 RBI in 1925, but never topped the league after claiming his fourth title in 1911.

Crawford Collects Three RBI Titles
Sam Crawford was another potent bat in the Tigers lineup during the early years of the 20th century. He teamed with Ty Cobb to provide a potent punch at the top of the Tigers lineup and joined Cobb among the Tigers RBI champions.
Crawford finished second to Cobb with 80 RBI in 1908 and 97 RBI in 1909, but broke through to lead the league with 120 RBI in 1910. He finished second again with 115 RBI in 1911 and 109 RBI in 1912 before returning to the top of the American League with back-to-back RBI titles in 1914 and 1915. He posted 104 RBI in 1914 to lead the league and then posted 115 RBI in 1915 to tie teammate Bobby Veach for the league lead and his third career RBI title.
He finished in the top 10 in RBI among American League players 13 times during his 15 seasons with the Tigers. He finished his Tigers career with 1,264 RBI, fifth-most in franchise history.

TIGERS RBI CHAMPIONS

Veach Continues Tigers RBI Dominance

Bobby Veach joined the group of Tigers RBI champions with 115 RBI during the 1915 season, which matched teammate Sam Crawford for the league lead. He finished third in the league with 91 RBI in 1916, but surged ahead to lead the league with 103 RBI in 1917 and again with 78 RBI in 1918.
Veach nearly claimed a third consecutive title, finishing second with 101 RBI in 1919. He posted his three highest career RBI totals in seasons where he did not lead the league. He posted 113 RBI in 1920, but finished seventh in the league. He followed up with a career-best 128 RBI in 1921, but finished fourth. He nearly matched the career best the next season as he posted 126 RBI, but finished second to Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns with 155 RBI.
He finished his Tigers career with 1,042 RBI, 10th in franchise history.
Greenberg Posts Four RBI Titles and Sets Club Record
Following a stretch that saw the Tigers record nine RBI titles in 11 seasons from 1907-18, the club went 17 seasons without an RBI title until Hank Greenberg led the league with 170 RBI during the 1935 season to lead the American League.
Greenberg set a club record with the 170 RBI in 1935 and surpassed that record to win his next RBI title with 183 RBI during the 1937 season. He would add another league title with 150 RBI in 1940 before missing time due to a four-year stint in the Army during World War II. He returned from military service in July, 1945 and helped lead the Tigers to a World Series title. Greenberg again led the league with 127 RBI during the 1946 season, the last of his four career RBI titles.
Greenberg played 12 seasons with the Tigers and totaled 1,202 RBI during his Tigers career, which remains sixth-most in franchise history. He leads all players in club history with one RBI every 3.99 at-bats and he topped 100 RBI seven times during his Tigers career.

York Leads the American League with 118 RBI in 1943

Rudy York was another slugger in the Tigers lineup during the Greenberg and Gehringer era. He posted remarkable numbers as a rookie catcher with the Tigers in 1937, belting 35 home runs and collecting 103 RBI in just 104 games. He collected over 100 RBI in five of his first seven full seasons with the Tigers, finishing in the top 10 among American League players five times during that span.
He collected 118 RBI during the 1943 season to earn the lone RBI title of his career. York finished second in the league one time during his career, posting a career-best 134 RBI during the 1940 season, but trailed teammate Hank Greenberg with a league-best 150 RBI.
York averaged 104 RBI in his nine full seasons with the Tigers and remains third all-time with an RBI once every 5.00 at-bats during his time with the Tigers.

Boone Wins American League RBI Title in 1955

Ray Boone spent just four full seasons and parts of two others with the Tigers, but enjoyed his two top RBI seasons during that span. The Tigers acquired Boone from the Cleveland Indians during the 1953 season and Boone proceeded to collect 93 RBI in 101 games down the stretch to finish the season with a career-high 114 RBI. The 114 RBI ranked third in the American League, a prelude to the 1955 season when Boone collected 116 RBI to lead the American League for the only time during his career.
Boone finished in the top 10 in RBI a total of three times during his career, all three with the Detroit Tigers as he finished 10th in 1954 with 85 RBI. He collected 460 RBI during his 683 games with the Tigers.

TIGERS RBI CHAMPIONS

Fielder Returns from Japan to Win RBi Title in 1990
Cecil Fielder was signed by the Tigers as a free agent prior to the 1990 season after spending the 1989 season playing in Japan. He belted 51 home runs and collected 132 RBI in his first season with the Tigers to lead the American League in both categories. His RBI title snapped a streak of 34 seasons without a Tigers player leading the league in RBI, the longest such drought in franchise history.
Fielder followed up his 1990 RBI title by collecting a career-best 133 RBI in 1991 to again lead the league. He finished with 124 RBI in 1992 to lead the league and become the first Tigers player since Ty Cobb in 1907-09 to lead the league in RBI in three consecutive seasons.
Fielder collected 875 RBI in 1,142 games with the Tigers during his career and ranks second in franchise history with an RBI once every 4.85 at-bats.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.
The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

TEN TIGERS MANAGERS HAVE BEEN EX-CATCHERS

Since 1901, the Tigers have had 36 different managers and 10 of those managers have been former major league catchers. They include Luis Pujols, Les Moss, Ralph Houk, Joe Schultz, Bob Swift, Bob Scheffing, Steve O'Neill, Del Baker, Mickey Cochrane and George Stallings. There have been four Tigers managers who never played in the majors - Ed Barrow, Bill Armour, Jack Tighe and Jim Leyland. Of the remaining 22 managers, two were pitchers, four were outfielders and 16 were infielders in their playing days.

TRAMMELL AND WHITAKER SET AL RECORD

Former Tigers Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, who played together from 1977-95, established an American League record in 1995 with 1,918 appearances as teammates. Trammell and Whitaker, who played shortstop and second base, respectively, broke the old American League mark of 1,914 held by Kansas City third baseman George Brett and second baseman Frank White. The major league mark for appearances by two players as teammates is 2,015 , held by third baseman Ron Santo and outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, who played together from 1960-73.

AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth all-star game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a $5-2$ deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher AI Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing $1 \times 3$. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a midsummer classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing $1 \times 4$ with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing $1 \times 1$ with an RBI.

JULY 10, 1951
NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th all-star game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an all-star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive all-star games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

AMERICAN LEAGUE G, NATIONAL LEAGUE 4

The all-star game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the $6-4$ victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched an all-star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).
Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game $1 \times 2$ with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in all-star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game $1 \times 2$ with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

American League 7, National League 5

The all-star game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in all-star games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing $2 \times 3$ with a pair of singles and an RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.
Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th all-star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished $0 \times 1$ with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

HARWELL ENSHRINED IN COOPERSTOWN

Ernie Harwell retired as the Tigers play-by-play radio announcer following the 2002 season, his 55th season in Major League Baseball and his 42nd calling Tigers baseball.

He received the Ford C. Frick Award in 1981, presented by the Baseball Hall of Fame for broadcasting excellence. Harwell was the fifth recipient of the honor, becoming the first active broadcaster to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Harwell was named the play-by-play broadcaster for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948, his first major league appointment. After two seasons with the Dodgers, he moved on to play-by-play work for the Giants and Orioles before coming to Detroit in 1960. He was at the microphone for Bobby Thomson's historic playoff home run in 1951, marking the first coast-to-coast telecast of a major sporting event.

He served as the Tigers radio play-by-play voice from 1960-91, before broadcasting games for Tigers television from 199398. Harwell returned to the radio booth for the final season at Tiger Stadium in 1999.

ALWAYS A TIGER

The theme of the Detroit Tigers advertising campaign is "Always A Tiger." It transcends Tigers history by paying tribute to the Hall-of-Fame players who wore the ' $D$ ', and who provided the life-lasting memories of your childhood, the bonding between your family and friends, and the celebratory moments that have defined this city of Detroit. "Always A Tiger" celebrates the TIGER Olde English ' D ' - the symbol of strength, resilience and pride that has become the unofficial symbol of southeastern Michigan.

SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On July 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises. Additionally, he was the first manager to lead teams from both leagues to a World Series title and to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues.

The Tigers will retire Anderson's number 11 as part of a ceremony during the 2011 season.

DETROIT TIGERS OLDE ENGLISH ‘D’

The Detroit Tigers Olde English 'D' is one of the most revered emblems in Major League Baseball. It was first stitched on the away uniform in 1904, only three years after the team had joined the newly formed American League. The following year, the Olde English ' D ' was stitched on the home uniform as well and also appeared on the baseball cap. Through the years the ' D ' has undergone various stylizations, but the pride this symbol brings to the team and its fans has been constant.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tigers nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895 ." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

THE SEASON: The Mud Hens posted a 70-73 record (.490), finishing fourth in the International League's West Division. Outfielder Jeff Frazier was selected to both the league's mid- and post-season all-star squads, while righthanded pitcher Jay Sborz was named to the league's mid-season all-star squad.
THE BATS: Toledo led the International League with 42 triples. Frazier led the league with 61 extra-base hits, while he tied for third with 235 total bases, 34 doubles and 25 home runs. Frazier was tabbed the IL Player of the Week for July 12-18 after hitting $.571(8 \times 14)$ with a double, three home runs and six RBI in four games. Second baseman Will Rhymes tied for third in the league with seven triples, while he finished sixth with a .305 batting average. Infielder Max Leon and outfielder Casper Wells tied for fifth in the league with six triples. Infielder Jeff Larish was selected the IL Player of the Week for June 14-20 after batting .421 ( $8 \times 19$ ) with a double, three home runs and 10 RBI.
THE ARMS: Righthanded pitcher L.J. Gagnier finished seventh in the International League with a 3.51 ERA. Gagnier and righthanded pitchers Billy Buckner and Enrique Gonzalez all tied for fifth in the league with one complete game. Gonzalez tied for second in the league with one shutout. Righthanded pitcher Alfredo Figaro was selected the IL Pitcher of the Week for July 19-25 after he won both of his starts and posted a 0.66 ERA (13.2IP/1ER) and 16 strikeouts. Righthanded pitcher Thad Weber earned IL Pitcher of the Week honors for August 30-September 5 after he picked up the win in both of his starts and compiled a 1.20 ERA (15.0IP/2ER).

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12 -time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

JOKER MARCFCANT SIADIUM ANVD TIGERIOWN Sprivg Traivivag Home of the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2011 for their 75th season in Lakeland and their 46th at Joker Marchant Stadium.
The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $$ 500,000$ and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000 . Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium. The recent $$ 11$ million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that features luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

TIGERS SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is TigerTown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the TigerTown renovation.
Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 356-281-18 and 3,096,940 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

Fetzer Hacc AND TigerTows Facicities

While the Tigers major league club has trained in Lakeland since 1934, the organization's minor league affiliates have called Lakeland home since 1953. The move to the TigerTown facility in 1953 was aided by the use of barracks that were originally part of the Lodwick School of Aeronautics, a British training school for aviation cadets during World War II. The school closed in August, 1945 and was converted to a city airport, which was later named Lodwick Field. The barracks from the former training school allowed the team to provide room and board for players throughout Spring Training.

The original setup at Lodwick Field boasted four diamonds, a fieldhouse, recreation room and a dining hall, which was said to have served nearly 16,000 meals during Spring Training in 1953. The field provided the club with an all-encompassing facility that could serve the needs of the minor league system during Spring Training. When the facility opened in 1953, the club owned three minor league affiliates and had working agreements with four other clubs. The 1953 Detroit Tigers Press Book stated that 200 rookies would be given the opportunity to display their wares in the first minor league spring training held at what is now the TigerTown complex.

TIGERS SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Player housing on site at the TigerTown complex continued in the barracks through the 1970 season, when the club, in conjunction with the City of Lakeland, began construction on Fetzer Hall at a cost of $$ 425,000$. Touted as boasting the last word in construction with air conditioning, controlled heating and carpeted rooms, the dormitory was designed to house nearly 200 players and coaches during the baseball season.

The facility was completed during the summer of 1970 and dedicated in 1971. It was named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers added an administration building, cafeteria and recreation center in 1993 to expand the TigerTown facility.
Fetzer Hall and the surrounding facilities underwent a $$ 1$ million renovation prior to the 2008 season. The renovation upgraded the dormitory rooms, lounge areas, recreational areas and the cafeteria. Each room is equipped with a flat screen television and high-speed Internet access. Lounge areas feature large screen televisions and couches for players to relax.

Each room in Fetzer Hall is named for a different part of Tigers history. Rooms on the first floor are named after Tigers Hall of Fame players. Rooms on the second floor are named after noteworthy Tigers coaches and managers and the third floor rooms are named after different parts of TigerTown history.

What began as simple housing accomodations in former military barracks has given way to a facility that helps provide players with many of the comforts of home while allowing them to stay in close proximity to top notch training facilities. The advancement from Lodwick Field and military barracks to the current TigerTown facility and Fetzer Hall has helped the Tigers maintain one of the top minor league headquarters in baseball.

明 COMERICA PARK

COMERICA PARK HOME OF TḢE DETTROIT TIGERS

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in the history of Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit that features a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for fans of all ages.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the neighboring Ford Field, Fox Theatre and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown. Comerica Park provides a beautiful view of the Detroit skyline which is highlighted by the Renaissance Center, Detroit Athletic Club and many Detroit landmarks.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. The general standard for concourses in existing ballparks is 32 feet in width. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE SCOREBOARD

Comerica Park features a massive scoreboard that helps keep fans informed and entertained throughout every Tigers game. The face of the structure, in fact, is equivalent to the size of the face of the Fox Theatre Office Building facing Woodward Avenue ( 180 ' wide). The structure includes one video screen ( 42 'x24'), one large black and white matrix board with the line score ( $644^{\prime} \times 34^{\prime}$ ), and a color matrix board ( $42^{\prime} \times 24^{\prime}$ ).
Prior to the 2007 season, the Tigers added digital signage to enhance the fan experience at Comerica Park. The digital signage included an upgraded out-of-town scoreboard in right field and over 900 feet of animated fascia signage. The fascia signage can be used for advertising and is also utilized to provide information throughout the game.

COMERICA PARK

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed throughout the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from appropriate eras.
CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT
Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area behind third base and the "Big Cat Court" food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel.
The stunning fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 11,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park.

COMERICA PARK STATUES

Comerica Park features larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends that overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, AI Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by renowned sculptor Omri Amrany and were cast in stainless steel.

FANTASTIC FIREWORKS

Not only is Comerica Park known for explosive action on the field, but also explosive action in the skies above. Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select weekends throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting product.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

COMERICA PARK

Comerica Park is entering its 12th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Despite such a short history, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth all-star game in Detroit and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League 7-5 behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a major league record by belting 24 home runs in the first round and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.
